Grants & Funding Opportunities

1. Get Schools Cooking – *** NEW ***

Chef Ann Foundation has opened applications for Get Schools Cooking, a comprehensive three-year program that includes on-site assessment, strategic planning, and continued technical support for school districts transitioning to scratch-cooked operations. Learn more and apply here. Deadline for this grant is March 1, 2018.

2. Native American Language Grants

First Nations Development Institute (First Nations) today launched a request for proposals (RFP) process for its newest effort, the Native Language Immersion Initiative (NLII). First Nations will award about 12 grants of up to $90,000 each to build the capacity of and directly support Native language-immersion and culture-retention programs. The full RFP can be found here. It contains information on eligibility, the application process, grant requirements, selection criteria, allowable activities and more. The application deadline is March 23, 2018. Eligibility is limited to U.S.-based tribal government programs, tribal 7871 entities, Native-controlled nonprofit organizations, and Native-controlled community organizations with a fiscal sponsor.

3. Project Orange Thumb Grant

The Fiskars Project Orange Thumb Grant Program will grant 30 recipients $3,500 in gift cards and tools to help support their goals of neighborhood beautification and horticulture education. The garden initiative must be for a not-for-profit or 501(c)(3) organization within North America that has not received a Project Orange Thumb grant in the past. The Project Orange Thumb team looks for organizations committed to the long-term success of gardens that will promote healthy and sustainable food sources, community collaboration and neighborhood beautification. Applications are due by 11:59pm CST on February 2, 2018. Please review the terms and conditions before proceeding.

4. Get Out and Grow: School Garden Sweepstakes

Your school could win $15,000 toward a garden—plus a visit from a Team USA Athlete! Smucker Away From Home wants to help schools across the country develop gardens that help cultivate hard work and healthy eating habits. The Get Out and Grow School Garden Sweepstakes is open to School Administrators or Foodservice Directors of K-12 schools. Learn more and apply here. Deadline for this application is 11:59:59 p.m. CST on March 11, 2018.

5. Value Added Producer Resource Grants

The Value Added Producer Grant (VAPG) program helps agricultural producers enter into value-added activities related to the processing and/or marketing of new products. The goals of this program are to generate new products, create and expand marketing opportunities, and increase producer income. For more information, follow the link here. Deadline for this application is January 31, 2018.

6. Project Produce: Fruit and Veggie Grants for Schools

The Chef Ann Foundation presents Project Produce: Fruit and Veggie Grants for Schools. This grant is designed to help increase kids' access to fresh fruits and vegetables and create experiential nutrition education when and where students make their food choices: in the cafeteria. The $2,500 one-year grants support food costs to incorporate school-wide fruit and vegetable tastings into the school's nutrition program. Grants will be determined on an ongoing basis depending on available funding. Learn more and apply.

7. Scholarships Open for 9th National Farm to Cafeteria Conference

The National Farm to School Network is now accepting applications for scholarships to the 9th National Farm to Cafeteria Conference, which will take place in Cincinnati, Ohio, April 25-27, 2018. This event is the top national training and networking event for farm to cafeteria professionals working to improve community health, build economic opportunities for farmers and producers, and ensure long-term sustainability for local food efforts nationwide. To ensure the conference reflects the full diversity of the movement, scholarships are prioritized for farmers and farm support organizations, farm to college / hospital practitioners, early care and education providers, food service professionals, persons of color, and youth (through age 22). Learn more and submit your application here now until the deadline of Feb. 12 at 8pm ET.

8. Anchorage Mayor's Office Local Food Mini-Grants (ASD Only)

Looking for a way to start or expand a school garden, indoor growing system, or any other project that empowers students to increase their community's access to fresh, locally-grown produce? The Office of Mayor Ethan Berkowitz is pleased to offer the Local Food Mini-Grant Program in conjunction with Cities of Service and the Alaska Food Policy Council. Anchorage schools, residents, and community groups can apply for mini-grants of up to $1000 for projects that will improve food security and community resilience. Priority will be given to initiatives that serve low-income neighborhoods. The grant guidelines and online application can be found here. Applications are due January 31, 2018. Please contact Catherine Kemp (KempCJ@muni.org or 907-312-9127) if you have questions or need help with your application.

9. Division of Agriculture Opens the Specialty Crop Block Grant Funding Opportunity

The Division of Agriculture announces its Specialty Crop Block Grant funding opportunity open now. The purpose of the grant is to fund projects that will benefit and promote the specialty crop industry in the state of Alaska. We encourage projects that demonstrate innovative partnerships and benefit a variety of specialty crop industry members. Projects are expected to produce a measurable result that impacts the industry in the state of Alaska. Projects that enhance the knowledge or benefit residents are also encouraged. Past project examples include: market access studies, vegetable variety trials, increasing local foods in university meals, connecting farmers and restaurants owners, and increasing peony harvesting. To read the RFP and see who to contact if you have questions please go here. The Letter of Intent is due by 5:00pm (AST) on February 9, 2018.

10. Center for Disease Control (CDC) Grant

Growing/Gardening/Farming News

Ester's Calypso Farm & Ecology Center Announces Two-Week Farming Intensive – ***NEW*****

I am sharing this announcement for my friends up at Calypso!

We are reaching out to let you know about Calypso's Two Week Farming Intensive, offering production and business planning skills to aspiring farmers and homesteaders. The Intensive is a great fit for those wanting to start their own food project, who can't afford months off work or the cost of a longer Farmer Training Program.

We are focusing our outreach to Alaskans, and ask that you might help spread the word within your Alaskan Ag and Ag Education network. I have attached a flyer, and the links to the program below. Please let me know if you would like further information or resources!
